

THE SMART DIVORCE® WORKSHOP

If you are either contemplating or currently going through divorce, this seminar offers you strategies and tips for successfully navigating the divorce process. You'll learn what to expect about the emotional and legal aspects of divorce so you are better prepared to move forward with focus and confidence while saving time and money.

Time: 7:30 – 9pm

Registration Fee: $25 per seminar.

Location: 12 Lawton Boulevard, Toronto

Payment: Cheques payable to Deborah Moskovitch
Or cash to: 12 Lawton Boulevard
Toronto, Ontario M4V 1Z4

To reserve your space call The Smart Divorce at 905 695 0270 or email info@thesmartdivorce.com

Copies of The Smart Divorce will be available for sale.*

THE SMART DIVORCE: LEARNING THE BASICS

Tuesday, September 16, 2008

Speaker:

Deborah Moskovitch, Divorce Consultant and Author of
The Smart Divorce

Learning objectives:

- Understanding Divorce: Exploring the “emotional divorce” versus the “legal divorce” and how to manage the process to avoid bad decision making.
- Working with Your Lawyer: It’s a job for both you and your lawyer. What you should be doing to make the process most cost effective.
- Get Your Life in Order for The Divorce Process: How to organize your paperwork to cut down on legal expenses.
- Considering all the Divorce Options: Understanding the dispute resolutions available to obtain your separation agreement and the pros and cons of each process.

THE SMART DIVORCE: PARENTING THROUGH DIVORCE

Tuesday, September 23, 2008

Speaker:

Deborah Moskovitch, Divorce Consultant and Author of
The Smart Divorce

Learning objectives:

- Parenting throughout divorce: Telling your children about your divorce; what your children are going through; and putting your children’s best interest first
- Moving from Mom’s house to Dad’s house - Understanding custody and co-parenting arrangements and the terminology used; developing a parenting plan; and parenting after divorce.
- The parenting experts: Who they are, how they can help you and things to consider.